

On the job site.
In the field.
At the scene.

No matter what corner of the province they work, paramedics are trusted to deliver expert health care to Albertans when it's needed most. It's an important job with enormous responsibility.

That's what makes the role of Alberta College of Paramedics so important. The College ensures its regulated practitioners stand for the highest quality of care. Always

One symbol. One promise.

It's more than a collection of words. Though the definition of paramedics has broadened significantly over the past few years, our core mission remains intact.

We are a group of professionals unified in purpose and focused on our future.

What we value

We take pride in our profession, and the work we do is based on making a difference.

As an organization we value:

Professionalism

Excellence

Leadership

Integrity

Accountability

Our promise

Alberta College of Paramedics regulates practitioners to safely serve the public while maintaining the integrity of their profession, no matter what environment they work in.
